one thing, It is a solemn fact, I will sing de hist'ry ob de world in de twinkling ob de crash; Werry polite Den walk in! Werry politer walk in! walk in I

Chorus

Ad lib: through dis here part Wery supplicating.

pray, Oh walk into the parlor boys And hear the banjo play; Oh walk in..to the parlor boys And hear de ban--jo ring, An watch de niggars

2

This world is made of mud from the bottom of the river,
And the sons of all fox fire as you may diskiver,
The moon is made of cheese, and it always keeps a gwine,
But the sun stands still while the world keeps flying.

3

Dey first made the earth and den dey made the sky,
And den dey hung it up above and left it dar to dry,
Den dey made the stars out of nigger wenches eyes,
To give a little light when the moon don't rise.

4

So Adam was the first man, Ebe was de tudder,
Dey put Cain on the treddin mill, because he kill his broder,
Sampson was a strong man, nor wasn't counted lazy,
Case he took an asses jaw bone and slew de gates ob Gazy.

5

Massa Jonah was a sassage maker, Thusula built the ark,
Julecum Cesar was a fisherman, what swallowed down a shark,
De highest mountain in the world is Pompey's famous pillar,
And the gratest man that ever lived was jack the giant killer.

6

And dare was major Noah got the varmint all together,
Because it gan to look very much like rainy weather,
The elephant it came last and Noah says your drunk,
Oh no I aint, it took me all the while to pack my trunk.

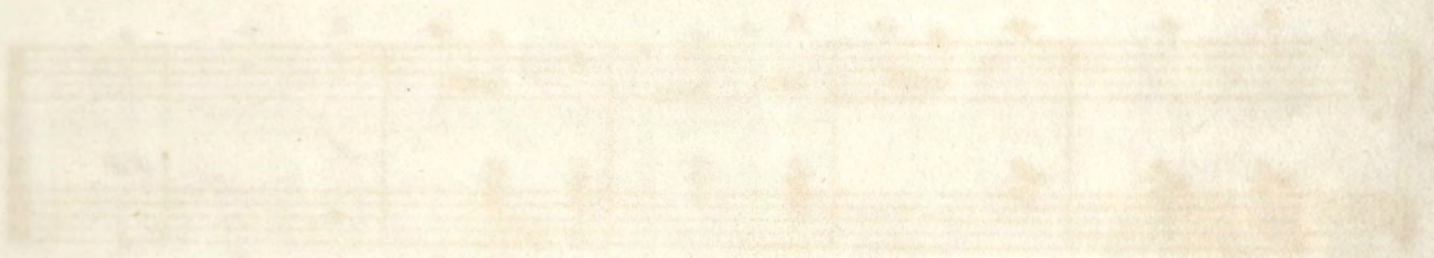

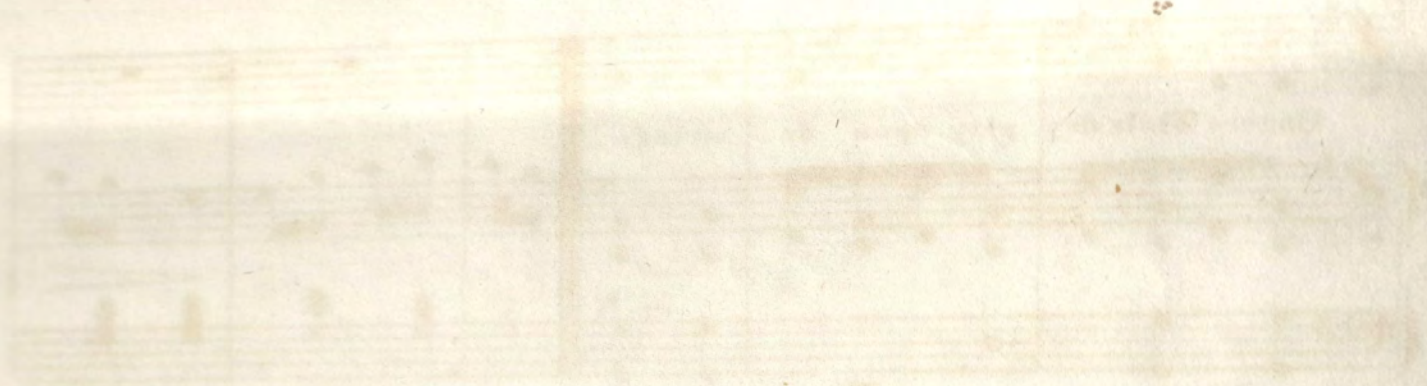

7

Noah built the ark and he filled it full of sassage,
And all the animals had to take a cabin passage,
It rained forty days and nights, exactly by the counting,
And it landed Noah's ark on the Alegany mountains

8

There was a wicked sinner and Dagon they did call him,
Case Noah wouldn't let him in he said he meant to maul him,
He made a rush and stubbed his toe and fell against the ark,
His head was like a Codfish and his tail was like a shark.
